

Loving Our Enemies

Jesus reminds us of the importance of loving not only our friends, but also our enemies (Matthew 5:43-48). Have fun placing the green words into the puzzle. We've put in the first word and a few letters as hints.

"You have heard that it was said, 'Love your neighbor and hate your enemy.' But I tell you, love your enemies and pray for those who persecute you, that you may be children of your Father in heaven. He causes his sun to rise on the evil and the good, and sends rain on the righteous and the unrighteous. If you love those who love you, what reward will you get? Are not even the tax collectors doing that?"

Matthew 5: 43-46 (NIV)
