Teaching the Golden Rule

- Create a top “ten” list of Golden Rule behavioral traits.
 - That might include: Honesty, integrity, kindness, and so on.
 - Create a poster with the traits listed.
 - Post it where it will be a daily reminder to do good to others.
- Create a top “ten” list of Golden Rule followers.
 - Who in the Bible practiced the Golden Rule?
 - Okay, maybe the Golden Rule hadn’t been written yet, but who did good to others?
 - After you have your top ten list – create a poster. Draw pictures of these Bible characters or download some of the pictures from BibleWise to add to your poster.
- Create your own Golden Rule commandments.
 - Thou shalt share.
 - Thou shalt not argue.
 - Thou shalt help your parents without being asked, etc.
 - Once you have your top “ten” list – the ones that you can and want to obey -- you can draw pictures to add to your poster or
 - With the help of an adult, take digital pictures of family members, church members, friends living your Golden Rule commandments and put them on your poster.
 - If you do family members, you can post it as a reminder for the family.
 - You can put it on your family web-site.
 - If you take pictures of people in your church, post on a bulletin board so everyone can see it or post it on your church web-site.
 - You can always send it to BibleWise to include.
