

Higher Ground

What would you do? We need to be respectful of our siblings and friends so how would you respond to the following situations:

1. If there was one BIG cookie and one SMALL cookie? Would you take the bigger one? smaller one?
2. If there was only ONE cookie left? Would you take it? Give it to a friend?
3. If there were cookies freshly baked out of the oven. Would you be the first to take a cookie? Or would you let your brother, sister, and friends go first?

What would you do?
