

Obedience is Important

In one of Jesus' parables, he talks about a father and his two sons. The oldest son is asked, "Will you work in our vineyard for me today?" This son replies, "I will not go and work for you today." But later, he has a change of heart and thinks, "I really need to be obedient and go work in the vineyard." And so he does.

The younger son is asked the same question by his father, "Will you work in our vineyard for me today?" This son joyfully replies, "I'm on it, Dad, no problem, I'll work for you today." But, as soon as the son leaves the house, he forgets about his promise to his dad and never shows up to work in the vineyard.

Now, which son do you think made his father happy? The son who said, "No," but finally obeyed his father, or the son who said "Yes," but disobeyed?

The story is told in the pictures below, put them in the right order. The first frame is numbered "1" already.

